Shot 2

L-P High School was just old enough to buy a child's ticket to the nickelodeon
when motion pictures were born in this country.
From "Birth of a Nation"
to "Star Wars",
the history of movies paralleled life at L-P.

"CAVAL-TREK '80"

La Banquete Internationale

Each year tablesful of native delicacies seem to be the high points. Language students speak in foreign tongues entertaining each other with skits, songs, folk dances. Exchange students and faculty members are guests. L-P Ushers help handle the traffic. French, German, Spanish and AFS Clubs enjoy, enjoy.

No different this year, either, except that the International Banquet hosted an overflow crowd of party-hardies. Food, fun and festivities!

"White (or nearly) Christmas"

December '79 was full of Christmas spirit at L-P. The chorus and band each held public concerts in Matthiessen Auditorium. The brass choir added cheer for La Salle-Peru shoppers. More than 100 girls wore personalized Santa caps. Youngsters were partied in Child Growth and Development classes. All of us vacationed from December 19 to January 3.

Secret Admirers Day

Since Secret Admirers Day was initiated by the Student Council, thousands of pink and red carnations have been exchanged among L-P students and sent to faculty members by students. It's a nice way to say, "You're a person I admire." Pink carnations for girls; red, for boys may be delivered without identifying the sender. ABOVE: Student Council president Rich Weber and secretary Kay Sampson work out the routing procedures, sending carnations to designated homerooms. RIGHT: Kay makes a personal delivery to Mr. Roth, principal. Monies raised are used for Student Council community service projects.

"The Downhill Racers"

L-P made Hollywood headlines with its first cross-country team for girls, spearheaded by seniors Mo Wicks and Bobbi Suarez. Although the team reported a winless season, "the enthusiasm and determination of these girls makes them all-stars," said first year coach Cindy Funfsinn. "We're looking ahead to next season."

L-P CAVALIERS: the Heart of the Football Capital of Illinois

More than 500 high school football teams began their quests for the state title early in the morbid heat of August.

The Cavaliers christened its '79 schedule with two decisive wins over much larger 5A schools. Then, they displayed their act against Dixon, Sterling and other NCIC rivals, topping the UPI and AP polls throughout much of the season.

In all, the Cavaliers rattled off 12 consecutive wins before gaining a berth in their third straight 4A title contest at Normal on the campus of ISU.

A chilly Saturday afternoon, with winds gusting to 25 mph, prevailed as the Red-n-Green Express was finally derailed by Wheaton North, 14-7.

A huge contingent of scarlet-and-kelly-clad fans left their hopes behind at Hancock Stadium, but put their hearts with the Cavaliers as they realized L-P had captured yet another second-place finish, the third in as many years.

Just four hours after the final gun had sounded, a rousing ovation was extended to players, coaches and other members of the Cavalier family in a welcome-home reception in the west gym. Members of the school board, student organizations, media, and city governments expressed their heartiest congratulations.

But News-Tribune sports editor, Gary Koehler, may have said it best.

When asked by a fellow reporter if there would be any hometown reception after the game, Koehler replied, "Sure". To wit, the reporter said that in his town the only way they'd have a reception for the team would be if the team won. "Probably", replied Koehler, "but that's because you don't live in the football capital of Illinois — LaSalle-Peru!"

The 1979-80 L-P varsity basketball team had a roller coaster season, starting strong with six wins without a loss. It finished with a regular schedule, 14-9.

Third-year L-P coach, "Chips" Giovanine, returned only one starter from his 20-6 squad of a year ago. The Cavaliers were often outmatched in size, but possessed a balanced scoring attack and a lot of solid bench strength.

Perhaps its biggest kicker of the season came early when it captured its own Cavalier Classic Thanksgiving tournament.

Sophomore Coach Scott Martens moved up, along with his top-notch freshman squad of a year ago. About the '79-'80 Incas, Coach Martens said it all when he said, "They're a fine group of pressure players, showing a lot of poise and courage. They keep their composure and win the big games. Yes, they have the potential to become a fine team in the next two years."

A's post 13-10 season

During Coach Paul Pescetto's initial season as Aztec "A" cage mentor, the team put together a formidable defensive thrust — especially in the last third of the schedule when it became very stingy with opponent scoring.

BELOW: Separate Freshman "A" and "B" squads lead cheers at game-time for students and spectators. BOTTOM: Freshman "B" Team: From Left, Ron Sharpe, Kent Hahn, Jeff Erickson, John Threet, Scott Leonard, Brian Ernat, Russ Erickson, Dave Michels, Rob Hahn, Brian Olesen, Eddie Bowen, Tim Janka, Tom Assalley, Kevin Simkins, Jim Peterlin, Rob Uranich, Coach Tom Dobrich.

It was "steady improvement" that marked the 1979-80 basketball season for the L-P Frosh B's, said Coach Tom Dobrich. "And, that's satisfying!" The "bees" took six of their last six contests to close-out the year with a hot hand.

Death, Be Not Proud

Death, be not proud though some have called thee
Mighty and dreadful, for thou art not so,
For those, whom thou thinkst thou dost overthrow,
Die not, poor Death, nor yet canst thou kill me.
From rest and sleep, which but thy pictures be,
Much pleasure, then from thee much more must flow,
And soonest our best men with thee do go,
Rest of their bones and soul's deliver.
Thou art slave to Fate, Chance, kings and desperate men,
And dost with poison, war and sickness dwell,
And poppy or charms can make us sleep as well,
And better than thy stroke; why swell'st thou then?
One short sleep past, we wake eternally,
And death shall be no more; Death, thou shalt die.

John Donne

As we near the end of our scenario for the "Main Event" for 1979-80, it is our hope that this edition of ELL ESS PE is an entertaining, informative and quite enjoyable pictorial history book of the past school year.

We hope that ELL ESS PE '80 will help fellow students recall the memories and good times experienced here at L-P, today and in the years to come.

Thanks go to our hardworking staff, you'll find pictured on pages 64-65; to our photographers Guy Scoma, Jon Muzzarelli and Chris Schaede; to Mr. Terrando, for the many valuable ideas and comments expressed throughout the year; to the LA SALLE NEWS-TRIBUNE for its assistance, sports photos and otherwise; to the Board of Education, L-P clubs and organizations, and the hundreds of students who support this 1980 yearbook.
